

I am an anxious patient - how can you accommodate me?

We would recommend arranging a first consultation where your fears and needs are explained to the dentist so that a customised treatment modality can be offered, which may include anxiety control in the form of oral medication for your specific situation.

We also offer sedation in theatre as well as Intravenous (IV) sedation in the chair done by a doctor.