

I want to have a root canal and bridge work done on some of my teeth, but I'm not sure if my medical aid will pay for any of the procedures, or what part of the procedure they will pay for. What should I do in order to find out what will be covered?

Contact us to arrange a consultation for a quote. Once we have provided you with this quote, it can be submitted to the medical aid in order to establish which procedures will be covered.